

GOOD IMPRESSION... ...BETTER RESULT!

A STRAIGHTFORWARD
AND EFFECTIVE
ARCHITECTURAL
ILLUSTRATION SERVICE

www.terrywhitworth.co.uk

Terry Whitworth Design is an established illustration company specialising in architectural illustration for all aspects of the building sector.

For well over 15 years we have translated elevations & plans into accurate, attractive watercolour illustrations for marketing and planning purposes. Our work is used increasingly for sensitive planning applications and appeals.

Clients throughout the country include architects, estate agents, developers, housing associations and planning authorities.

With a challenging housing market, it makes sense to give maximum visual impact and information

1. Apartment building, Lancashire
2. Mixed development, aerial, Dorset
3. Detached dwelling, Hampshire
4. Chalet bungalow, Dorset
5. Detached farmhouse, Dorset

HOW WE WORK

After initial contact & discussion, we will be able to give an indication of cost and timescale for your project.

Within a few days of receiving plans, elevations and site photographs if available, we will email rough black & white viewpoint sketches to you in order to establish the best aspect for the finished illustration.

Once viewpoint is agreed, we will prepare the illustration(s) and email them to you for approval or any minor amendments. Finally a high res. file and the original artwork will be sent.

EXAMPLES OF COST

All projects have different requirements but below is a guide to average cost.

Single House	£250 - £350
Street Scene	£300 - £400
Apartments	£300 - £500
Map	£100 - £150
Site Plan	£100 - £200
(V.A.T is charged at the current rate)

MARKETING EXTRAS

As well as illustrating any architectural project, we also produce 'supporting' images in watercolour, including maps, floor plans and 'lifestyle' and location sketches.

A small selection of illustrations highlighting the scope of our work is shown in this brochure. For further examples, please visit our website.
